KEY: (1.5 + 1. + 1.) This is the 3.5 Lower Principles which Mother Nature Recycles.

Some lower 3.5's shells are almost perfect while others Shell have broken their silver cords and are pure evil.

Some shells are bad like Vampires, Ghosts, and Demons. Other are good like Spiritual Guides and Teachers.

All these types of Astral and Etheric shells must eventually get recycled by Nature. They get ground into pure atoms.

These lower mind and emotions can live in the Astral for a very long time after death but must ultimately get recycled by nature. Also, ghosts who have a strong will force and are attracted to earth life for some reason. They have broken their silver cord.

Lower Pranas or Life Force = 1
